

The Centre for Child Development
JOB POSTING

Posting #: P-CT-10-02-01

Job Title: Speech-Language Pathologist

Departments: Communication Therapy

Location: Surrey and Langley Site

Status: Temporary Full time 1.0 FTE Maternity Leave (for 12 months)

Hours of Work: 36 hours per week

Start Date: March 29, 2010

Union: Health Sciences Professionals

Job Rate: Speech-Language Pathologist - Grid Level 11

Reports to: Director of Communication Therapy

Job Summary:. Implementing best practice in pediatric speech and language assessment and intervention in a family centred service delivery model in conjunction with the pediatric intervention team.

Job Duties: Initial Consultations, Assessments and Intervention for a range of communication disorders and delays in the preschool population served by The Centre for Child Development. Assessment and intervention services are offered both at the Langley and Surrey Sites as well as at Lookout Preschool in Delta and at other preschools, daycares and family homes. A criminal record check, valid BC driver's license, satisfactory driver's abstract and access to a vehicle are required.

Qualifications: Masters' Degree in Speech-Language Pathology
Registration with the College of Speech and Hearing Health Professionals of BC
Experience working with children with multiple disabilities aged birth to 6 years and their families
Continuing education/practice with Autism Spectrum Disorder
Knowledge of Punjabi, Hindi, Urdu or other second language an asset
Hanan Basic certification an asset

Posting Date: February 25, 2010

Closing Date: When filled

How to Apply: Direct resumes to: Christy Faraher-Amidon
Directors of Communication Therapy
The Centre for Child Development
9460 – 140th Street, Surrey, B.C. V3V 5Z4

cc: Langley Site
G. Bremault, Chief Executive Officer
Chief Steward HSA

Delta Lookout Preschool
K. Asaye, Chief Financial Officer
J. Dungate, HR Consultant